In Memoriam.

The committee appointed by Waterfall Lodge, No. 773, I. O. O. F., of New Grenada, Pa., on memorial resolutions respecting the death of Newton H. Alloway, a P. G. confess an unusual embarrassment in the discharge of their duties.

This has arisen in part from the intimate relations we have personally sustained to the brother and on account of his sudden death in the Sanitarium at Roaring Springs, on May 20. We feel a desire that our report should voice, if possible, the treasured sympathies and memories which have been hallowed by our fraternal order.

No man, no matter how indifferent or how careless he may be, can stand beside the body of his friend and brother without feelings of sadness and thoughtful reflections upon the changes so suddenly made when life escapes from the body.

Thus do we mourn the absence of the familiar face, and we sorrow, but they are only reminders of our desolation, not that of our dead.

When we too have solved the mystery of life, may we be able to say "farewell, dear brother, we hope to meet you in that eternal home."

Newton H. Alloway was born near Waterfall, Pa., January 16, 1868, died May 20, 1910, aged 42 years, 4 months, and 4 days and his entire life was spent near his birthplace.

He was a Past Grand of Waterfall Lodge, No. 773, I. O. O. F.

The Lodge has lost a faithful and zealous brother, the community a good and useful citizen, the home a loving husband and father. We extend our sympathy and helping hand to the bereaved family, pointing them to the Giver of all good and precious gifts for succor, in this dark hour of trouble and grief.

A widow and seven children are left to struggle alone through life. Brothers, don't forget the motto: "Visit the sick, bury the dead, relieve the distressed and educate the orphans." By resolution we drape our charter in mourning for thirty days; have these resolutions published in FULTON COUNTY NEWS and FULTON Democrat; record them in minute book, and send a copy to the bereaved family.

L. L. CUNNINGHAM, A. D. BERGSTRESSER, S. C. GRACEY, Committee.

D. A. Black Thanks His Friends.

Waterfall, Pa., June 11, 1910. To the Voters of Fulton County:

GENTLEMEN:—I wish in this public manner to express to the Democratic voters of the County my sincere thanks for the kind and courteous treatment I received during my primary canvass of the county just closed and to my friends for their support and the interest taken in my behalf. I have been a resident of the county for the past forty-six years and a voter in the county for the past thirty-two years, and have always been a Democrat. I have, during my canvass of the county, had the pleasure of meeting many persons previously unknown to me as well as friends of old acquaintance. I have also had the pleasure of traversing the entire county which I had never previously done, the profile of which is proficuous to me at least. During my canvass I have meant to treat all persons courteously and with respect. I have made no misrepresentations during my canvass. Concerning my vocation my farm is my home. The latching string is out to my friends—call and see. The report circulated at a late hour to the effect that I had withdrawn from the contest was incorrect, improper and impolite to say the least, and made, as it was, at a time when it was impossible for me to correct the error—was evidently intended to mislead my friends and it certainly accomplished the purpose sought. Nevertheless I am yet a Democrat, just the same and very much alive, and am perfectly satisfied with the result and mean to support the ticket nominated. With kind regards and best wishes to all my friends I beg to remain a friend of agriculture and democracy.

Very respectfully, D. A. BLACK.

Pleasant Party.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last Sunday, it was a merry little party that assembled in the home of Jas. C. McKee. They were entertained by the graphophone, pleasant conversation, etc. Promptly at 5 o'clock the dining room door was thrown open, and behold! the table fairly groaned underneath the weight of good things, consisting of ice-cream, lemonade, custards, and cakes of various kinds.

Those who enjoyed the treat were Leo Kearns and wife, Eugene Laidig and niece Mabel Moorhead, of Jeannette, Pa., Allison Sipes, wife and daughter Ethel; Dr. A. K. Davis, George Melius and wife, Mrs. Edward Melius and little son—all of Hustontown.

In the evening all departed for their homes, thanking Mr. and Mrs. McKee for affording them such an enjoyable time.

WHIPS COVE.

Owing to the very cool weather, the corn in this part of the globe is not doing so well as it might, were the weather more favorable.

Hiram Fletcher and son Ed, of Bedford county, were in the Cove Saturday, looking for cattle. They swapped horses with D. C. Mallott and pulled for home.

We are glad to see Will Diehl out again. Abner Mellott is reported better. D. C. Mallott's baby has been quite ill. Achshah Plessinger, who has been suffering from an attack of heart trouble, is able to be out again.

Those who visited Will Diehl and family Sunday afternoon, were Emory Diehl and wife, H. H. Layton and wife, E. A. Hoopengardner and wife, Effamy Diehl, Albert Plessinger; Ellis Plessinger, Achshah Plessinger, Edward F. Mellott, F. P. Plessinger, and Mrs. Caleb Mellott. Gee-Whiz, Will, did they stay for supper?

Job Winter is sporting a new team of horses. Dr. J. M. McKibben, of Amaranth, made a couple trips to the Cove last week.

The carpenters are still busy at Albert Plessinger's dwelling house. Bob Diehl is putting a new roof on his barn.

Ben Morris has moved his mill in the hollow below Locust Grove, and is now making the dust dry.

James Johnson and Mrs. E. R. Mellott, of Plum Run, visited in the homes of Asa and Nathan Mellott, Sunday.

WEST DUBLIN.

Albert King, an employe of the P. R. R. in Altoona, spent a few days at his home in this township, and visited the family of B. F. Price on Saturday evening.

Allen Deavor and Harvey Berkstreser are helping Ned Mellott at his saw mill this week.

Luella Price, youngest daughter of Frank Price, was quite ill last Sunday.

Those of our people who had plenty of cherries this summer, did well with them. The first that were taken to market, readily sold at ten cents a quart.

Last Wednesday evening, the call-thumpian band serenaded Wm. J. Shaw and wife at the home of Mrs. Shaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Price. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw have the best wishes of their many friends for a long and prosperous voyage on the sea of life.

A number of our young people attended children's service at Center on Sunday afternoon, and at Hustontown on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Harry Bowen, of Pittsburg, is visiting the family of her father, Hiram Clevenger.

Miss Benson, daughter of Calvin Benson and wife, of Trough Creek Valley, Huntingdon county, is visiting relatives in this township.

Mrs. Leshe W. Seynar made a trip to Williamson School, Pa., last week and accompanied her brother Marshall Loges home. Marshall has been in poor health. We hope that being at home during the summer may cure to his advantage physically.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

Here we come again. More rain, more rest, more grass, mass. We certainly are having plenty of wet weather.

Miss Enza Wink, of Needmore, is spending a few days at Geo. R. Hoop's.

Oscar Deshong, of Warton, Md., who had been visiting on the Ridge, returned to his home last Sunday.

Sylvester Truax had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse.

Miss Nell Morton, a student in the McConnellsburg Normal, spent the time from Friday evening until Sunday in the home of her parents, George W. Morton and wife.

Gee! Whoa haw! Bock and Berry, Gid-dap! is the way you can hear Bland Deshong talking to his team. Bland sold a horse and purchased a yoke of oxen. We wish you much success, Bland. Bland says they are O.K. but he can't drive them in his buggy.

Mrs. H. H. Strait is very ill at this writing.

Levi P. Morton left last Friday for Fort Littleton, to spend a few days.

Reed Mellott and Henry Hann, two of our prominent young carpenters, have returned home from Franklin county, where they were erecting a barn.
